

Year 1 – Music

25th November

During our music lesson we looked at a piece of music called 'No place like'. We discussed the different techniques they used to make music and tried to create our own body percussion music.

